the methods of obtaining his money. If they be illegal or criminal. If the American Board made it distinctly understood to Mr. Rockwell that his gift was accepted unconditionally, and that the Board or the ministers of the churches left themselves free to say what they thought was the truth about the Standard Oil Company or Mr. Rockefeller, they can say so to anyone who does not accept the money. But there must be no conditions attached to such a gift from such a man.

COUNTER-ATTACK BY RUSSIAN BEATERS JAPS

L'nevitch Loses Over 200 in Vain Attempt to Force Foo South.

BIG BATTLE IS PENDING

LONDON, April 6.—Official dispatches from Peking to Tokyo report today the repulse of a counter-attack by the Russians on the Russian front. The dispatch says: "On the afternoon of April 3 the enemy, with mounted artillery and machine guns, advanced north from the direction of Tsingtao on the Fenghsia road, and on the morning of April 4 opened a bombardment on Chichow." "Simultaneously a large force of infantry advanced from the vicinity of the main road, two other columns debouching to cover both our flanks." "They approached within 100 meters of our positions, but at 8 o'clock in the morning we entirely repulsed them." "The Russian losses were heavy, but it is estimated at over 200 killed and 500 wounded."

Linevitch to Offer Battle.

According to the London Standard, General Linevitch intends making a stand much further south than 250,000 men. He has sent 20,000 men to build Kiao, and with his remaining 230,000 men, and a few thousand, under his command, he is now in a position to offer battle. "FRIEND TAKING ME TO SEA," WRITES LOST BOY

MISS MARY DUTTON

A letter just received by Charles C. Crymble of Lynn in the handwriting of the ten-year-old son, Milo, for whom the distressed father has been searching for two months, is believed by Mr. Crymble to be simply a decoy message intended to throw the father off the track.

The letter says the boy has not a friend in Boston who is going to take him to sea.

The boy was forced to write this letter by someone who is purposely keeping the boy out of his custody.

January 20 Milo started for his Sunday school in Lynn. The father has not seen him since. He received a telegram that day saying Milo had gone to Lynn. He then told his wife, Mrs. Frank Harrison of Lowell, that he had seen Milo.

Mrs. Crymble said that Milo Harrison was a very good boy. He had a very good character. He was a very good boy.

HEARD NOT TO BE BARGE SUNDAY

Measure Introduced in Senate to Establish State Board of Commissioners.

BAY STATE BOARD IS MODEL

Special to the Boston American.

PROVIDENCE, April 6.—Those who believe in public utilities, have an opportunity today, at the rising of the Senate, to appear before the Committee on Special Legislation of the Legislature to urge the passage of the bill that has been introduced by Representative Nugent providing for the appointment of a Board of Gas Commissioners.

The bill is fashioned after that in force in Massachusetts, which was modeled in the mind of the late Mr. C. W. Smith, who was a member of the Legislature for the past several years. The bill provides that the State Board of Gas Commissioners shall consist of three members, all of whom shall be qualified in the gas business, and one of whom shall be a representative of the public.

The bill provides that the State Board of Gas Commissioners shall have the honor of the gas business in the State, and shall have the power to regulate the rates of gas companies, and to issue licenses to gas companies, and to revoke the same.

The bill provides that the State Board of Gas Commissioners shall have the honor of the gas business in the State, and shall have the power to regulate the rates of gas companies, and to issue licenses to gas companies, and to revoke the same.

The bill provides that the State Board of Gas Commissioners shall have the honor of the gas business in the State, and shall have the power to regulate the rates of gas companies, and to issue licenses to gas companies, and to revoke the same.

Board's Duties Defined.

The duties and powers of the board are to be borne by the gas companies in the State in proportion to their gross earnings.

Each of the companies shall annually submit to the board a statement of its earnings, and the board shall have the power to audit the same, and to issue orders to the companies to produce the same.

The board shall have the power to regulate the rates of gas companies, and to issue licenses to gas companies, and to revoke the same.

The board shall have the power to regulate the rates of gas companies, and to issue licenses to gas companies, and to revoke the same.

Board May Reduce Price.

Upon the complaint in writing of the Mayor of any city or of the Town Council of any town, in which a gas company is operating, the board may order the company to reduce the rates of gas, and to issue orders to the company to produce the same.
